Volume XXVII 1974 No. 1-4

CONTENTS

Editorial–Jonathan D. Moreno 1

Psychodramatic Shock Therapy, A Sociometric Approach to the Problem of Mental Disorders–J. L. Moreno 2

Psychodramatic Role Training with Stutterers–Rochelle J. Haskell and Alfred L. Larr 30

Psychodramatics–The Genealogy of a Clinical Modality–Andrew W. Mezurecky 37

Further Improvement Following Therapy–John Palau, Lewis Leitner, Fritz Drasgow and James Drasgow 42

A Theology for Psychodrama–In Memory of Jacob L. Moreno–John B. Oman 48

Termination–Ray Naar 55

Psychodrama and the Future of the Social Sciences–Jonathan Moreno .. 59

The Origin and Development of Psychodrama and its Relationship to Radical Theatre–David Kent and Cathy Carter 71

Psychodrama: An Experiential Study of its Effectiveness within the Homosexual Society–Carolyn B. Walker 83

Can You Really Talk with Your Child? A Parental Training Program in Communication Skills Toward the Improvement of Parent-Child Interaction–Deborah D. Durrett and Patricia A. Kelly 98

Current Status of Outcome in Group Psychotherapy–David R. Black ... 110

Role Repertoire in Marriage–Mark and Susanna Eveson 119

Psychodrama, A Theatre for our Time–Robert M. Ginn 123

The Contributions of J. L. Moreno to the Treatment of the Offender—Martin R. Haskell 147

Warm-Up to a Sociometric Exploration—Ann Elisabeth Hale 157

Social Atom: An Alternative to Imprisonment—Sharon L. Hollander 173

The Letter—James M. Sacks 184

Psychodrama of Young Mothers—Zerka T. Moreno 191

Psycho-Opera: A New Concept Combining Opera and Psychodrama—Norma M. Wasserman and Tobi Klein 204

Psychodrama and Happening—Gilbert Tarrab 212

American Society of Group Psychotherapy and Psychodrama 236

International Association of Group Psychotherapy 240

Moreno Institute 243

News and Notes 247

Founded by J. L. Moreno, 1947